

Call for Papers

Biennial Meeting of the Baptist Association of Philosophy Teachers
Baylor University, Waco, TX
Friday-Sunday, March 17-19, 2023

BAPT's executive committee is pleased to invite submissions for its nineteenth biennial conference. Papers on any topic of general interest to the BAPT membership are welcome. Suggestions for panel discussions are also welcome. Please indicate the topic and proposed panelists. Undergraduates may submit complete papers for consideration.

Submission deadline: February 17, 2023 (early submissions receive preference)

Directions: Submit either a one-page abstract/proposal or a complete paper (3,000-4,500 words) prepared for blind review. Undergraduate submissions must include a complete paper. All submissions must be saved in either Word or PDF format. Email your submission as an attachment to Gregory Poore, BAPT Secretary-Treasurer, at gspoore@uu.edu. Please use the subject "BAPT 2023 Submission."

Registration: Conference registration is $85 for faculty and $45 for students. Register and select a payment option through the BAPT website:

Additional information: For questions or more information, please contact Gregory Poore, BAPT Secretary-Treasurer, at gspoore@uu.edu.

Call for Membership Dues

The Baptist Association of Philosophy Teachers (BAPT), organized in 1987, exists to support the teaching of philosophy on Baptist campuses, to enhance the intellectual tradition of Baptists, and to provide a forum for the integration of evangelical Christian faith with philosophical scholarship. BAPT serves its members as a forum for shared concerns, a sounding board for addressing philosophical issues, and a network for the encouragement of professional development. BAPT membership is open to all those who teach philosophy in Baptist colleges, universities, and seminaries; to those who are Baptists teaching philosophy in other institutions; and to other professional philosophers who support its purposes. We invite you to support the Baptist Association of Philosophy Teachers with dues of $10. The new dues cycle for 2023-25 begins in March 2023 (coinciding with the Biennial Meeting). You may join while registering for the conference or by using one of the membership options on the BAPT website:
